

02-278 I've been told that this particular proposal would increase the number of telephone calls that I receive at home. I placed myself on the no-call list because I have no interest in receiving calls at home. This should be simple enev for the FCC to understand. Dave Himm